

College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of Ontario

Ordre des praticiens en médecine traditionnelle chinoise et des acupuncteurs de l'Ontario

Registrar

College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of Ontario 705-55 Commerce Valley Drive West Thornhill, ON L3T 7V9

Fax: (416) 214-0879

Email: registrar@ctcmpao.on.ca

LETTER OF STANDING

FOR	(First Name)		OCH N
	(First Name)	(Last Name)	(Middle Name) is a mo	ember of the College of Traditional Cl	ninese Medicine P	ractitioners and Acupuncturists of Ontari	io. At his/her request dated		, we are providing you the following inform	nation pertaining to his/her: gistration Status e/she
a)	is a member since:(mm/dd/yyyy)	-
b)	is currently holding a		to use the title and designation
		- •
	Descritions Engine	т.
	Duration: From:(mm/dd/yyyy)	(mm/dd/	- yyyy)
c)	Fees
	is not owing us any fees or monie	S is in arrears of the following:

d) Terms, Conditions and Limitations does not have and has not had any terms, conditions or limitations on his or her Certificate of Registration. currently has or previously has had terms, conditions or limitations on his or her Certificate of Registration. e) Suspension, Revocation or Cancellation does not have or has not had his or her Certificate of Registration suspended, revoked or cancelled. has or has had his or her Certificate of Registration suspended, revoked or cancelled. 2. Professional Conduct Record a) Complaints the practitioner has never been the subject of a formal complaint. the practitioner is the subject of a formal complaint which is still in progress. the practitioner has previously been the subject of a formal complaint which has concluded with a decision being issued (including "no further action") by your College.

concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College.	the practitioner has previously been the subject of a formal complaint which has concluded. c) Discipline Proceedings the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your Colleg Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	b)) Investigation the practitioner has previously been the subject of a formal complaint which has concluded. c) Discipline Proceedings the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	c) Discipline Proceedings the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner has never been the subject of a disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education		the practitioner has never been the subject of an investigation.
c) Discipline Proceedings the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Cuality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	c) Discipline Proceedings the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which he concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education		the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing investigation.
 □ the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding □ the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding □ the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education □ the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements □ the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	 □ the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding □ the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding □ the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education □ the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements □ the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	c
 □ the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding □ the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding □ the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education □ the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements □ the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education
the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education
the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College Quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Quality Assurance Program	the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College Puality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	c)) Discipline Proceedings the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Quality Assurance Program (a) Continuing Education (b) the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education (c) the practitioner is not/has not been	the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which h concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College and the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education		the practitioner has never been the subject of a discipline proceeding concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College. Cuality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	concluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College quality Assurance Program a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education		the practitioner is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary proceeding
 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	c	the practitioner has previously been the subject of disciplinary proceeding which has oncluded with a decision (including "no further action") being issued by your College.
 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education
 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education
 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education
 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education 	 a) Continuing Education the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education
☐ the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements ☐ the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	☐ the practitioner has always been complying with your continuing education requirements ☐ the practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	uali	ity Assurance Program requirements The practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	requirements The practitioner is not/has not been complying with your continuing education	a)) Continuing Education
		re	_ 1
		re

College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of Ontario

Ordre des praticiens en médecine traditionnelle chinoise et des acupuncteurs de l'Ontario

b) Inspection of Practice (complete if this is a component of your Quality Assurance Program)

	the practitioner's practice has been inspected and	is in compliance the practitioner's practice has not been inspected the practitioner's practice has been inspected and recommended improvement	the report of the inspection report
	c) Currency of Practice the practitioner has always complied with your p hours, days etc.)	ractice requirements (in practice the practitioner has stopped practising from: (mm.	to: //dd/yyyy)
	not applicable	(min da yyyy)
4. Oth	ner Relevant Information
Signed	l, Certified and Sealed thisday of	20
Signatu	ure	Registrar and CEO